Re: CEASE AND DESIST DEMAND

To Whom It May Concern (“You”):

I am the owner of San Diego East County Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce, California Entity # 3987960, having registered such corporation on January 27, 2017.

Your corporation is and was FTB SUSPENDED and so all rights to protection of Your corporate name were forfeited. Cal. Rev & Tax. Code § 23301; Boyer v. Jones (2001) 88 Cal.App.4th 220, 225-226. As such, the corporate name no longer belongs to You.

I demand You immediately remove any references to Your status as a corporate entity and refrain from engaging in business as the corporate entity within ten (10) days of receipt of this letter. This includes any reference to the corporate entity or non-profit corporation status on Your Facebook page, any social media sites, business advertising, or business operations.

If You refuse to act within the time provided, I may take all actions authorized under California law, including any available legal remedies. I further note that, as a suspended corporation, You are not permitted to participate in any legal actions or file any responsive pleadings to such complaints. Palm Valley Homeowners v. Design MTC (2000) 85 Cal.App.4th 553, 559.
