I am running for City Council District 3. I feel I can be an asset to City Council because I served on the Santee Redevelopment Project Area Committee also known as PAC 2002 through 2005 as a volunteer. My family came to Santee in 1946. My father was in the Navy he built his home on Mission Gorge Road, where I grew up. We lost our home to eminent domain 1994. I attended local schools, graduating from Santana. I was a Orthopaedic practice Manager for over 20 years. I am retired single mother of three. I am passionate about controlling development and preserving our open spaces. My parents were a part of the incorporate of the City of Santee. I look forward to representing you on the City Council District 3. Thank-you for your vote.
